1 Introduction

This centre handbook provides information for centre staff involved in the planning, delivery and assessment of the following qualification which has been accredited onto the Qualifications and Credit Framework (QCF).

03977 OCR Level 1 NVQ Award in Sport and Active Leisure

It is important that centre staff involved in the delivery of the above qualification understand the requirements laid down in this handbook. Centres should therefore ensure that all staff involved in the delivery of this qualification have access to this document.

1.1 The OCR Sport and Recreation suite of qualifications

The OCR Sport and Recreation suite of qualifications provides candidates with high quality, nationally recognised qualifications. They are vocationally-related, credit-based qualifications that provide valuable opportunities for individuals to develop skills, gain underpinning knowledge and understanding and demonstrate competence in the workplace or provide progression to other job roles. They support achievement of Key Skills/Functional Skills/Essential Skills and relate to national occupational standards (NOS).

The awarding body for these qualifications is Oxford Cambridge and RSA Examinations (OCR) and the regulatory body is the Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulation (Ofqual).

These qualifications have been accredited onto the Qualifications and Credit Framework (QCF). They are endorsed by SkillsActive, the sector body for active leisure and learning.

1.2 Administration arrangements for this qualification

A separate publication, the Admin guide: Vocational Qualifications (A850), provides details of the administration arrangements for this qualification. The Admin Guide is available to download from our website: www.ocr.org.uk.

1.3 What is the Qualifications and Credit Framework (QCF)?

The QCF is a unit and credit-based regulatory framework which replaces the National Qualifications Framework (NQF). It is a way of recognising skills and qualifications by awarding credit for qualifications and units achieved.

1.4 If centre staff have queries

This Centre Handbook and the Admin Guide contain all the information needed to deliver and administer this qualification. If centre staff have any queries about this qualification that are not answered in these publications, they should refer to the section Further support and information for details of who to contact. Support is also available on the OCR web pages for this qualification.

1.5 Documentation updates

The information provided in this handbook was correct at the time of production. Occasionally OCR may update this information. Please refer to the qualification web pages at www.ocr.org.uk for details regarding updates to this qualification. The latest version of this handbook is available to download from the OCR website.

2.2 Target market

This qualification is mainly aimed at young people or others who are new to Sport and Recreation and wish to achieve a qualification that reflects their competence in basic, introductory functions and responsibilities.

2.3 Qualification aims

This qualification has been designed for those working in the Sport, Recreation and Active Leisure sector and is suitable for young people or those who are new to the sector and who wish to achieve an award that reflects their competence in basic, introductory functions and responsibilities.

2.4 Entry requirements

This qualification is available to anyone who is capable of reaching the required standards. It has been developed free from any barriers that restrict access or progression thereby promoting equal opportunities.

All centre staff involved in the assessment or delivery of this qualification should understand the requirements of the qualification and match them to the needs and capabilities of individual candidates before entering them as candidates for this qualification.

There are no formal requirements for entry to this qualification.

2.5 Unique Learner Number (ULN)

It is an Ofqual requirement that Awarding Bodies must capture the Unique Learner Number (ULN) for all candidates who have claimed certification for OCR Level 1 NVQ Award in Sport and Active Leisure. Where a candidate has a ULN, you should enter their number in the ULN field of the entry form. For candidates who do not have a ULN, a claim will still be accepted if you leave this field blank but OCR will not be able to send these achievements to the Diploma Aggregation Service. Further information about this can be found in the Admin guide: Vocational Qualifications (A850) available to download from www.ocr.org.uk.

2.6 Progression opportunities

This qualification has been designed to encourage progression. The OCR Level 1 NVQ Award in Sport and Active Leisure (QCF) will allow progression to the OCR Level 2 NVQ Certificate in Activity Leadership.

This will also provide progression to the apprenticeship framework allowing learners to claim credit for units previously achieved.

2.7 Supporting OCR candidates

Centres should ensure that candidates are informed of the title and level of the qualification they have been entered for and that Oxford Cambridge and RSA Examinations (OCR) is the awarding body for their chosen qualification.

Centre staff should provide guidance to candidates on the assessment process and help candidates prepare for assessment. Full details on how the units are assessed are in sections 3 and 6 of this centre handbook.

2.8 Wider issues

This qualification provides potential for centres to develop candidates' understanding of spiritual, moral, ethical, social and cultural issues and heighten candidates' awareness of environmental issues, health and safety considerations and European developments.

Spiritual, moral, ethical, social and cultural issues

Centre staff delivering a course that supports this qualification would have opportunities to address spiritual, moral, ethical, social and cultural issues.

For example: In Unit 2 candidates will need to understand issues such as safeguarding children, and ensuring equality when dealing with customers.

Environmental issues, health and safety considerations and European developments

Centre staff delivering a course that supports this qualification may have opportunities to address environmental issues, health and safety considerations and European developments depending on the method of delivery/choice of teaching materials.

Health and safety issues and their application are an integral part of the qualification. Aside from completing Unit 2 which covers health and safety in depth, learners must show an understanding of health and safety issues in relation to the topics covered in many units of the qualification.

For example, in Unit 5, Help to maintain active leisure, learning and well-being activity equipment, learners must demonstrate that they know how to maintain activity equipment in-line with manufacturer's guidelines.

2.9 Guided learning hours

Each of the units in this qualification is allocated a number of guided learning hours (glh) which indicates the approximate number of hours for teacher supervised or directed study time and assessment. Information on unit glh for this qualification is given in section 6.

2.10 Funding

This qualification is accredited at Level 1 of the Qualifications and Credit Framework and is eligible for funding under Section 96 and/or Skills Funding Agency. For details on eligibility for public funding please refer to the following websites:

<http://www.dcsf.gov.uk/section96/>

<http://skillsfundingagency.bis.gov.uk/>

2.11 Mode of delivery

OCR does not specify the mode of study or specify a time limit for the achievement of this qualification other than the expiry dates for entry and certification laid down by the regulatory authorities detailed in the qualification profiles.

Centres are free to deliver this qualification using any mode of delivery that meets the needs of their candidates. Whatever mode of delivery is used, centres must ensure that candidates have appropriate access to the resources identified below.

Centres should consider the candidates' complete learning experience when designing learning programmes. This is particularly important in relation to candidates studying part time alongside real work commitments where candidates may bring with them a wealth of experience that should be utilised to maximum effect by centre staff.

2.12 Resources

OCR strongly advises that teaching and development of subject content and associated skills be referenced to real vocational situations, through the utilisation of appropriate work-based contact, vocationally experienced delivery personnel, and real life case studies.

Candidates should be encouraged to read around the subject and have an appropriate knowledge of the application of the appropriate legislation (eg Health and Safety).

In addition, each unit will contain guidance on the resources required. Staff conducting assessment must understand fully the requirements of this qualification. Centres should ensure that appropriate physical resources are made available to candidates.

Centres will need to provide appropriate assessment facilities for candidates that comply with the regulations laid down by OCR in the Admin guide: Vocational Qualifications (A850) and the JCQ Instructions for Conducting Examinations, available on the OCR website www.ocr.org.uk.

Centres will need to meet the above requirements when they seek centre approval from OCR.

2.13 Delivery in Wales and Northern Ireland

The specification for this qualification has only been approved by Ofqual for delivery in England/Wales/Northern Ireland during the life of the qualification.

The specification for this qualification has been approved by the Department for Children, Education, Lifelong Learning and Skills (DCELLS) for use by centres in Wales and/or by the Council for the Curriculum Examinations and Assessment (CCEA) for use by centres in Northern Ireland.

Candidates in Wales or Northern Ireland should not be disadvantaged by terms, legislation or aspects of government that are different from those in England. Where such situations might occur, including in the external assessment, the terms used have been selected as neutral so that candidates may apply whatever is appropriate to their own situation.

We will provide specifications, assessments and supporting documentation in English.

Further information concerning the provision of assessment materials in Welsh and Irish may be obtained from the OCR Customer Contact Centre: 024 76 851509.

2.14 Access arrangements and special consideration

Adjustments to standard assessment arrangements are made on the basis of the individual needs of candidates.

It is important, therefore, that centres identify as early as possible whether candidates have disabilities or particular difficulties that will put them at a disadvantage in the assessment situation and select an appropriate qualification or adjustment that will allow them to demonstrate attainment.

The responsibility for providing adjustments to assessment is one which is shared between OCR and the centre. Centre staff should consult the 'Joint Council of Qualifications' (JCQ) booklet Access Arrangements, Reasonable Adjustments and Special Consideration www.jcq.org.uk.

This document should also be referred to for those candidates who may require a post examination adjustment, special consideration (to reflect temporary illness, indisposition or injury), at the time of the examination/assessment.

For further guidance on access arrangements and special consideration please refer to OCR's Admin guide: Vocational Qualifications (A850) on the OCR website www.ocr.org.uk.

2.15 Results enquiries and appeals

Please refer to the Admin guide: Vocational Qualifications (A850) which can be downloaded from the OCR website www.ocr.org.uk.

2.16 Centre malpractice guidance

It is the responsibility of the Head of Centre* to report (in writing) all cases of suspected malpractice involving centre staff or candidates, to the OCR Standards Division.

When asked to do so by OCR, Heads of Centres are required to investigate instances of malpractice promptly, and report the outcomes to the OCR Standards Division.

Further information is contained in the JCQ publication: Suspected Malpractice in Examinations and Assessments which is available from www.jcq.org.uk together with OCR's Malpractice Procedures – A Guide for Centres.

* The Head of Centre is defined as the most senior officer in the organisation, directly responsible for the delivery of OCR qualifications, eg the Principal of a College, the Head Teacher of a school, the Managing Director of a Private Training Provider or the Group Training Manager of a major company.

3 Assessment

3.1 Assessment: How it works

In order for candidates to be able to effectively progress towards meeting the requirements of each assessment criterion, teachers/tutors must make sure that the supporting knowledge, understanding and skills requirements for each criterion are fully addressed. The identified knowledge, understanding and skills in the unit are not exhaustive and may be expanded upon or tailored to particular contexts to which the unit is being taught and the assessment criteria applied.

With the exception of some parts of units, it is essential that learners' evidence comes from real life situations as part of temporary or permanent employment, working with real equipment, facilities and customers. See section 3.15 of this handbook for details of the units where simulation is acceptable and please consult the unit document for detailed information regarding for which assessment criteria simulation is acceptable.

When assessors are satisfied that the candidate has met all of the requirements for a unit, they must confirm this by signing an evidence record sheet for that unit to show that the assessment process is complete.

3.2 Initial assessment of candidates

It is important for centres to carry out some form of initial assessment that identifies what competence and knowledge a candidate already has and the gaps that they need to look at. This will help plan the assessment because it allows assessors to help candidates understand the best place to start collecting evidence. It will also identify units which candidates might have difficulty finishing.

3.3 Assessment planning

Assessors must take responsibility for assessment planning with candidates. This will involve agreeing a number of issues with candidates including:

- finding the best source of evidence to use for particular units
- finding the best way of assessing the candidate
- confirming the best times, dates and places for the assessments to take place.

Assessors must make a note of their assessment planning and regularly give feedback to candidates.

3.4 Making assessment decisions

It is not necessary for candidates to meet all the criteria every time they carry out an activity but it is necessary that all candidates produce their own evidence to meet all assessment criteria. They must consistently provide enough evidence for assessors to believe that the candidate is competent in their working environment.

In line with the Learning and Development standard A1, assessors should:

- plan with the candidates
- assess candidate performance, knowledge and understanding
- look at the evidence
- question and give feedback to the candidate working towards these qualifications.

They should also be satisfied that the candidate has demonstrated competence when meeting the assessment criteria.

All criteria must be completed before the assessor can sign the unit off as complete.

Full details of the administration arrangements associated with this qualification are included in the Admin guide: Vocational Qualifications (A850) which can be downloaded from the OCR website www.ocr.org.uk.

3.5 Methods of assessment

It is the assessor's responsibility to agree the best method of assessing a candidate in relation to their individual circumstances. The methods agreed must be:

- valid
- reliable
- safe and manageable
- suitable to the needs of the candidate.

Valid

A valid assessment method is one that is capable of measuring the knowledge or skills in question. For example, a written test cannot measure a candidate's practical skills or their ability to work well with others.

Validity can also be compromised if a candidate does not understand what is required of them. For example, one valid method of assessing a candidate's knowledge and understanding is to question them. If the questions posed are difficult for the candidate to understand (not in terms of the content but the way they are phrased, for example), the validity of the assessment method is questionable.

As well as assessment methods being valid, the evidence presented must also be valid. For example, it would not be appropriate to present an organisation's security policy as evidence towards the requirement of assessment criteria 1.6 in the unit Promote health, safety and welfare in active leisure and recreation, unless developed by the candidate, as it would not allow for valid assessment. It may be more appropriate for the candidate and assessor to have a discussion about the policy and for the candidate to explain how it is relevant, illustrated with examples from their work of their compliance to the requirements. This discussion could then be assessed by the assessor and recorded as evidence.

Reliable

A reliable method of assessment will produce consistent results for different assessors on each assessment occasion. Internal verifiers must make sure that all assessors' decisions are consistent.

Safe and manageable

Assessors and internal verifiers must make sure that the assessment methods are safe and manageable and do not put unnecessary demands on the candidate and/or the organisation they work for.

Suitable to the needs of the candidate

OCR has tried to make sure that achievement of this qualification is free from constraints outside the requirements of the candidate's job role.

For candidates who have access requirements please see section 2.14 (Access arrangements and special consideration) of this handbook.

If centre staff think that any aspect of this qualification unfairly restricts access and progression, they should talk to their OCR external verifier about this.

OCR in partnership with SkillsActive and other awarding bodies have identified the following main assessment methods which are suitable for this qualification:

- direct observation of practice by a qualified assessor or by the expert witness for occupational specific units
- examining the evidence by an assessor
- questioning the candidate or witness by an assessor
- inference of knowledge from direct observation.

In some situations, the assessor can speak to the candidate to provide evidence of the candidate's performance and knowledge (see Professional discussion).

3.6 Examining the evidence

Only approved and qualified assessors (see Assessor and internal verifier requirements) may examine the evidence for the assessment of these qualifications.

Evidence can:

- reflect how the candidate carried out the process
- be the product of a candidate's work
- be a product relating to the candidate's competence.

For example:

The process that the candidate carries out could be recorded in an observation or witness testimony. It is the assessor's responsibility to make sure that the evidence a candidate submits for assessment meets the requirements of the qualification.

The product of a candidate's work could be paperwork they have had to complete as part of their work (blacked where appropriate to maintain confidentiality of clients etc).

After the assessor has examined the evidence, the assessor must record an assessment decision and the justification for the decision. The assessor should also give feedback to the candidate.

3.7 Observation

Only approved and qualified assessors (see Assessor and internal verifier requirements) may carry out observations for the assessment of this qualification.

The assessor and candidate should plan observations together but it is the assessor's responsibility to record the observation properly.

After the observation has taken place, the assessor needs to record an assessment decision and the justification for the decision. The assessor should also give feedback to the candidate.

3.8 Questioning

Only approved and qualified assessors (see Assessor and internal verifier requirements) may question a candidate or witness for the assessment of these qualifications.

Questioning the candidate is normally an ongoing part of the assessment process, and is necessary to:

- test a candidate's knowledge of facts and procedures
- check if a candidate understands principles and theories and
- collect information on the type and purpose of the processes a candidate has gone through.

Assessors should ask open questions; that is questions where the candidate has to give an answer (other than 'yes' or 'no'). Assessors should also be careful to avoid complicated questions which may confuse the candidate.

It is important that assessors record assessment decisions after they have questioned the candidate. They must record enough information to justify the decisions they make. This does not mean that assessors must record, word for word, the questions put to the candidate and the answers the candidate gives. However, assessors must record enough information about what they asked and how the candidate replied to allow the assessment to be verified.

Questioning witnesses is normally an ongoing part of validating written witness statements. However, questioning witnesses should not just be used for this purpose. Assessors should be able to speak to witnesses and record, in whatever way is suitable, the verbal statements of these witnesses. A record of verbal statement is a form of witness statement and could provide valuable evidence to confirm a candidate's competence over a period of time.

3.9 Professional discussion

Professional discussion is a structured, planned and in depth discussion recorded by the assessor. It allows the candidate to present evidence of competence and to demonstrate skills, knowledge and understanding through discussing the evidence and showing how it meets the requirements of the qualification. The assessor should guide the discussion by using open questioning, active listening and knowledge of the standards.

3.10 Witness testimonies

Witness testimonies can be used as evidence of a candidate's performance. Such testimonies could be made verbally to the assessor or could be written in a short note.

If a witness provides a written statement they should include the following:

- the candidate's name
- the date, time and venue of the activity carried out
- a description of the activities performed by the candidate
- the date of writing the testimony
- a description of the witness' relationship to the candidate
- their signature and job title
- their contact details (such as telephone number).

It is not appropriate for witness testimonies to contain a list of the skills to which it relates. Witnesses must direct the information in their testimonies to describing what the candidate did. The assessor will then judge whether the candidate's activities demonstrate competence to the standards. It is not acceptable for candidates to produce written witness testimonies for witnesses to sign, to support a qualification they are working towards.

3.11 Personal statements

This is a candidate's own account of what they did, backed up by reference to evidence or witnesses. Candidates can also produce logs or diaries, reflective accounts, but someone who can authenticate them as a true account of what took place must countersign these.

3.12 Performance evidence

Performance evidence provides proof of what a candidate can do. Sometimes, performance evidence can also provide evidence of what a candidate knows. Performance evidence can take the form of the following:

- products or outcomes of the candidate's work (for example, things that the candidate produced or worked on). The evidence presented for assessment may be the actual product or a record of the product
- if group work is used as evidence, the candidate's contribution must be identified clearly. Other products (for example, company policies) may have been reproduced by someone else but relate to the candidate and their competence
- proof of the way the candidate carried out their work (that is, the process they went through). An assessor's observation of a candidate or a witness' testimony both provides performance evidence and would be suitable for this qualification.

3.13 Where evidence comes from

Evidence may come from a number of different sources, for example:

- performance evidence may come from a candidate carrying out workplace activities
- knowledge evidence may come from a candidate carrying out workplace activities or from the candidate answering the assessor's questions.

3.14 Real work

The qualification requires that all assessment of a candidate's performance must take place within the workplace, and that observation should be of naturally occurring practice within the candidate's work role. This will include the demonstration of the application of knowledge. This principle will apply to all units, except where simulation has been deemed acceptable.

3.15 Simulation

Simulation is not allowed apart from where listed in the assessment guidance within a unit. However, where access to assessment is jeopardised by this, guidance should be sought from OCR who will decide the issue in conjunction with SkillsActive.

Simulations should only be undertaken in the minority of cases, where the candidate is unable to complete the units because of the lack of opportunity within their practice,

- where performance is critical but events occur infrequently and yet a high degree of confidence is needed that the candidate would act appropriately
- where performance is critical, happens frequently but where there is risk of harm to the candidate in a real situation
- simulation may be used as a supplementary form of evidence.

Where simulations are used they must replicate working activities in a realistic workplace environment.

The use of simulation will be indicated in each unit. A realistic working environment is defined by an environment that replicates what is likely to happen when an individual is carrying out their normal duties and activities.

3.16 Medium that can be used

Evidence can take many forms, for example, photographs, videos, audio tapes, CD-ROMs and paper-based or digitally formatted documents.

3.17 Amount of evidence needed

It is difficult to give detailed guidance regarding the amount of evidence needed as it depends on the type of evidence collected and the judgement of assessors.

For a candidate to be judged competent in a unit, the evidence presented must satisfy all the assessment requirements and assessment criteria.

The quality and breadth of evidence provided should determine whether an assessor is confident that a candidate is competent or not. Assessors must be convinced that candidates working on their own can work independently to the required standard.

OCR may accept some evidence from candidates who have been assessed in a language other than English, Welsh or Irish as long as there is enough evidence to show that candidates are competent in English, Welsh or Irish to the standard required for competent performance throughout the UK.

3.18 Cumulative assessment record (CAR)

As well as collecting evidence, candidates must record all their assessed evidence in their personal cumulative assessment record (CAR). The CAR is the candidate's record of what evidence has been accepted as proof of competence and where that evidence can be found. It can also be used to record progress towards, and achievement of units.

Filling in the CAR is an ongoing process involving discussion and agreement between the candidate and their assessor. The candidate should fill in and keep the CAR while working towards their qualification. An assessor may help the candidate complete the CAR if necessary.

Centres can design their own recording documents if they want to. You should talk about any document you want to use with your external verifier before you use them. OCR's publication Admin guide: Vocational Qualifications (A850) includes information and criteria for designing recording documents.

We have provided other forms and recording documents which assessors and candidates might want to use for this qualification please see the OCR website www.ocr.org.uk.

3.19 Verification – how it works

Internal verification

It is the centre's responsibility to appoint an internal verifier to manage the internal verification process. The purpose of internal verification is to make sure and show that assessment is valid and consistent, through monitoring and sampling assessment decisions.

Internal verifiers must agree the use of simulated activities before they take place and must sample all evidence produced through simulated activities (see section Simulation).

The role of the internal verifier is more fully explained in the Administrative Guide to Vocational Qualifications (A850).

External verification

OCR will allocate an external verifier who will visit the centre to verify assessments and internal verification.

External verifiers will want to interview candidates, assessors and internal verifiers during their visits. Assessment records and evidence for all candidates must also be available for verifiers to see if they ask to. It is the assessor's (and not the internal or external verifiers') responsibility to 'sign off' each unit of competence.

Centres should have the following available for each external verification visit:

- a list of candidates registered for these qualifications, together with their achievements to date plus certification records
- access to evidence (for example, up-to-date portfolios) and CARs
- access to OCR on-line claim system (Interchange)
- relevant assessors and selected candidates as requested by the external verifier (EV), including those whose certificates have been claimed through Direct Claims Status (DCS)
- all portfolios (access to evidence) relating to certificates claimed through DCS
- a copy of the external verifier's last visit report
- a sample signature list for all assessors and internal verifiers
- details of training and curriculum vitae for new members of the assessment team
- all centre records (see Centre records – assessment and verification for more details)
- evidence of achieving action points since the last external verifier visit

- notes of any action carried out due to particular points mentioned by an external verifier in any correspondence since their last visit
- recommendations to the external verifier
- if recorded evidence is used, ensure all recordings and appropriate playback equipment is available.

Centre records – assessment and verification

A centre must make sure that assessment and verification records are available for external verification purposes. Assessment and/or internal verification records must record the following minimum information:

- candidate's name and location
- the title and level of the qualification they are taking
- candidate's start date on the programme and confirmation of registration with OCR
- name of the assessor
- name of the internal verifier
- date and outcome of the initial assessment of the candidate
- dates and details of candidate reviews and feedback sessions
- dates of all assessments and their outcomes (that is, the decision whether the candidate has met the requirements or not) cross-referenced to the unit
- enough detail of the assessment to justify the decision made
- an indication of the use of simulation, if used
- dates and outcomes of internal verification
- action resulting from internal verification
- certification.

Records should show formative assessment decisions (ongoing decision making), summative assessment decisions and feedback to the candidate.

4 Assessor and Internal Verifier Requirements

4.1 Assessment Centre Requirements

The Assessment Centre must:

- Ensure that there are a sufficient number of people either trained or qualified to assess the number of candidates they anticipate to register
- Ensure that there are a sufficient number of people either trained or qualified to internally verify for the number of candidates and assessors
- Put verification systems and internal verifiers in place to ensure that all assessments are valid, reliable, authentic and sufficient and provide quality assured training for those people identified as being responsible for verification
- Ensure that there is a system of standardisation in place to ensure that all assessments are consistent and fair
- Ensure that those undertaking the roles of verification and assessment maintain their skills, knowledge and understanding regarding assessment and verification and the associated qualification.

The occupational expertise of those undertaking the roles of assessment and internal verification is one of the key factors underpinning valid, fair and reliable assessment. The integrity of assessments and verifications is of paramount importance. Centres must ensure that there is sufficient time to conduct effective assessment and internal verification.

4.2 Assessors

Assessment is an activity that can be performed by a dedicated individual or as part of an individual's wider role e.g. Supervisor, manager, tutor. All assessors must:

- be qualified as an assessor (A1). Assessor training authorised and monitored by OCR (although not necessarily leading to A1) would also be acceptable. Where Centres use trained assessors they must provide evidence of the training undertaken to OCR.
- have the role of assessor identified within their role profile, where assessment forms part of an individual's role.
- be occupationally competent in the unit they are assessing. This means that each assessor must, according to current sector practice, be competent in the functions covered by the units they are assessing. They will have gained their occupational competence working within the active leisure sector or within an appropriate occupational sector. They are not required to occupy a position in the organisation more senior than that of the candidate they are assessing. Centres must be alert to the risks that all such arrangements could present and ensure that sufficient quality controls are in place through the internal verification process to minimise the possibility of collusion between candidates and assessors. Assessors must be able to demonstrate consistent application of the skills and the current supporting knowledge and understanding in the context of a recent role directly related to the units they are assessing as a practitioner, trainer or manager

- meet the technical criteria developed for each occupational area or sporting context to ensure their technical competence in relation to the units being assessed.
- be familiar with the units that relate to the qualification and must be able to interpret and make judgements on current working practices and technologies within the area of work.
- maintain their occupational competence by either actively engaging in continuous professional development activities or by performing the operational role as part of their regular responsibilities in order to keep up to date with developments relating to the changes taking place in the active leisure sector.

4.3 Internal verifiers

Internal Verification is an activity that can be performed by a dedicated individual or as part of an individual's wider role. All Internal verifiers must:

- be either qualified as a verifier (V1) or have been trained to perform the function of verification. A programme authorised and monitored by OCR (although not necessarily leading to V1) is also acceptable. Where Centres use trained verifiers, they must provide evidence of the training undertaken to OCR
- be occupationally knowledgeable across the range of units for which they are responsible prior to commencing the role. Internal verifiers must understand the nature and context of the assessors' work and that of their candidates. IVs must also sample the assessment process and resolve differences and conflicts on assessment decisions.
- Meet the technical criteria developed for each occupational area or sporting context to ensure their technical competence in relation to the units being assessed.
- Ensure that assessment has been carried out by persons who are occupationally competent within the area they are assessing.
- maintain their occupational knowledge by actively engaging in continuous professional development activities in order to keep up-to-date with developments relating to the changes taking place in the active leisure sector.
- have an appropriate induction to qualifications and the standards that they are verifying provided to them by the Centre, and have access to ongoing training and updating on current issues relevant to these qualifications. Information on the induction and continuing professional development of internal verifiers must be made available to the external verifier.

5 Certification

Candidates who achieve the full qualification will receive:

- a certificate listing the unit achieved with their related credit value, and
- a certificate giving the full qualification title

OCR Level 1 NVQ Award in Sport and Active Leisure

Candidates achieving one or more units but who do not meet the credit requirements for a full certificate will receive a certificate listing the units they have achieved along with their credit value.

5.1 Claiming certificates

Certificates will be issued directly to the centre for successful candidates. In order to ensure that these are automatically issued centres must ensure that the OCR candidate number is always used where a candidate has already achieved one or more units. See the Admin guide: Vocational Qualifications (A850) for full details.

5.2 Replacement certificates

If a replacement certificate is required a request must be made to the OCR Operations Division on 024 76 470033, or in writing to the Coventry office, and an application form with further instructions will be sent. A charge will be made for a replacement certificate.

6 Qualification structure and units

6.1 Qualification structure

Candidates do not have to achieve units in any particular order and teachers/tutors should tailor learning programmes to meet individual candidate needs. It is recommended that, wherever possible, centres adopt a holistic approach to the delivery of this qualification and identify opportunities to link the units.

If a candidate is not able to complete the full qualification, their achievements will be recognised through the issue of a unit certificate listing the units achieved.

8 Supporting Documentation

8.1 OCR Recording documentation

We have provided forms and recording documents which assessors and candidates might want to use for these qualifications.

Centres can design their own recording documents if they want to. You should talk about any document you want to use with your external verifier before you use them. OCR's publication Administrative Guide to Verified Qualifications (code L526) includes information and criteria for designing recording documents.

The following recording documents are available to download from our website:

- Evidence Record Sheet
- Candidate Achievement Record
- Witness List
- Assessment feedback record
- Assessment planning record

Evidence Record Sheet

This form (or a suitable alternative) is mandatory for candidates' Cumulative Assessment Record (CAR). It is the vehicle for linking evidence to the "learning outcomes" and "assessment criteria". The evidence for the unit should be listed (as it is collected) down the left-hand side. The assessment method should be indicated and then the relevant "learning outcomes" and "assessment criteria" that the candidate is claiming should be written in the appropriate column. The evidence record sheet, where possible, should be filled in by the candidate with the help of an assessor if necessary. Due to the large number of learning outcomes and assessment criteria for some units, you may need to complete more than one form per unit.

Candidate Achievement Record

This form is designed to record a candidate's progress through the qualification. It will show, at a glance, which units the assessor considers the candidate to have finished and met all the requirements for.

Witness List

This form (or a suitable alternative) is mandatory for centre records. This form is designed to capture all the necessary information about witnesses who have contributed to a candidate's evidence of competence.

Assessment Feedback Record

This form (or a suitable alternative) is mandatory for centre records. It is designed to be completed by an assessor to provide candidates with written feedback after an assessment has been carried out. It can also be used to capture any feedback the candidate gives to the assessor.

Assessment Planning Record

This form (or a suitable alternative) is mandatory for centre records. It is designed to be completed by an assessor to capture when and how assessment planning took place.

You will be expected to demonstrate your ability to meet the requirements of each unit in a number of ways.
